Section 5 – Additional Notes:

Submitting this form aids us in processing your application. You can arrange your first training session and provide proof of ID & sign and date your application at this point. If this is a junior (12-17 years) application, your parent/guardian will also be required to attend to sign / be witnessed signing.

Section 6 – Training:

Advanced Operator Course Training: Due to the highly specialised nature of the training and firing practices conducted on our Operator Courses all applicants are required to undergo a defined training syllabus. The training syllabus will progress through a series of 10 (each 60 minutes) sessions and will take the firer from a beginner level through to an advanced level. The 10 training sessions must be completed within the first 6 months of membership. The training sessions can be conducted over consecutive days should you want to complete the course in quick time.

Upon completion of the initial 10 training sessions applicants will then have the option to progress onto an Elite level status where more complex shooting and close quarter combat techniques and procedures will be taught. Advanced Operator to Elite level will require an additional 8 training sessions.

Having achieved Advanced Operator level status, applicants can choose to progress to elite level or just pay to use the range on an individual session basis to conduct continuation-training, to maintain their skill sets using the weapon systems and range targets applicable to advanced level status only. These sessions receive no coaching from the range staff. Once elite level status is achieved then applicants can conduct continuation-training sessions using the complete set of range targets.

Section 9 – Opening Times:

The Shoot House range operates on a 5-day week basis, from 9am – 5pm. There is a maximum of 5 firers on the range at any one time. Once you have been allocated a time on a particular day it is the firers sole responsibility to attend that time as alternate times will not be guaranteed. Firers must arrive at the range no earlier than 10 minutes before their time begins; this is to ensure there is a minimum of disturbance to firers already using the range.

Alternative range days may be available upon request. Contact us direct to discuss.

Firers can arrange times either via email, telephone or by booking at the range directly following a training session. Range times are allocated on a first come first served basis. If you book to confirm a time and then do not attend, you will be charged for that missed time. To avoid missed time payments you must give at least 24 hours' notice of a cancellation (non-negotiable).

Alternative opening times and one to one sessions can be arranged upon request. Contact us via email or our office number for more details.
